

FASTLINE.COM

When you are looking for a partner in your business' marketing plan I would highly recommend Mick More and Fastline Publications Inc. They met with our marketing and sales management team and reviewed our business goals and challenges. Based on those meetings Mick came up with a specific, measurable plan along with regular reviews for recalibration if necessary. He is always there when we have questions or need help. We feel Fastline is one of our most reliable and effective marketing tools.

We have been very happy with Mick Moore and Fastline's entire sales process. If a business is looking for a local, knowledgeable representative that is willing to meet and come up with an effective, measurable plan to achieve their goals Mick Moore and Fastline would be an excellent choice. We continue to rely on Fastline as one of our most valuable tools to market our business.
